MEREDITH CENTRE.

Everyone here is talking over the 'phone tonight.

It has been said of "Aunt" Betsy Durward, the victim of the sad drowning accident, that she had not an enemy in the world.

Mrs. Eastman, wife of our pastor, attended services at the church Sunday.

Mrs. Abbie L. P. Boynton is quite ill.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Quimby and little son, of Lakeport were with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Buzzell, over Sunday.

Mrs. Sarah Livingstone is home again after a two weeks visit with friends in Boston.

Mrs. O. J. Piper preached a very fine and insructive sermon at the "Mission" last Sunday from a portion of the 17th chapter of The Acts. Everyone enjoyed the meeting.

The Woman's Missionary Society held their annual thank offering at the Free Baptist Church last Sunday afternoon. It was quite well attended. The literary program was well presented.

O. J. Piper was able to attend the services at the "Mission" last Sunday.

Harold, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Felker, has been quite ill.

Mrs. Cora Marston, who has been very ill for a long time, was able to ride a short distance Saturday, although still very feeble.

The open meeting held by Wicwas Lake Grange, Friday evening, was well attended and the literary program well carried out. Music by Mrs. Eva McLellan and Mrs. A. R. Connor. Essay, "American Citizenship," by Audrew L. Felker was a fine literary production. The Grange Journal, edited by M. R. Buzzell was another fine piece of literary work. "A Voice From the Poorhouse" was beautifully recited by Mrs. Eva J. Felker. The merits of no license was ably discussed by A. L. Felker, Mrs. F. J. Smith and Mrs. Eliza J. Kimball. Remarks were also made by the pastor, Rev. Mr. Eastman, Wm. B. Smith and Joseph F. Smith. All spent a very enjoyable evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew L. Felker attended the Mass Meeting and No-License Rally, at the Town Hall, Sunday evening.

The No-License Lecture by Rev. Geo. A. Crawford, at the Free Baptist Church last Saturday evening, was a royal feast of good things, and the best temperance lecture we ever had the pleasure of listening to. All of the evils of intemperance were presented so plainly that even a child could read and understand. The rum seller was held up in his true light, as far as that was possible, and the thousand and one terrible results that are sure to follow in the wake of license was portrayed in no too vivid colors. Rev. Mr. Crawford is an eloquent speaker and delighted the hearts of his appreciative audience from start to finish.

MOULTONBORO FALLS.

Miss Susie Smith is visiting her uncle, Joseph Smith, at Centre Harbor.

Mr. Frank Tilton, who has been suffering from a fractured rib, is able to be out again.

Mr. Dana Durgin, of Lynn, Mass., is visiting his brother, R. B. Durgin.

Mr. Arthur Day and family spent Sunday with his mother at Lake View.

Mrs. Marcia Bean has returned home from Lisbon.

Mr. Henry Lee died at the residence of Charles Cook, where he had made his home for the past four years, Friday morning, after an illness of nearly a week with pleuro-pneumonia. Mr. Lee was born here twenty-six years ago. The funeral services were held at the church Sunday afternoon, the Rev. Mr. Burns officiating. There were many floral tributes from both relatives and friends. He leaves one brother, David Lee, and many friends.

Miss Genevieve Patterson, the trained nurse who attended Henry Lee during his illness, returned to her home in Laconia, Friday.

A committee of the trustees of the New Hampshire state college, last Thursday, offered to Governor Nahum J. Bachelder the presidency of that institution. Governor Bachelder absolutely declined to consider the offer.

Laconia is to celebrate the glorious Fourth.

THE GOVERNORSHIP.

More than a year will elapse before the next Republican State Convention will be held. Nevertheless, the question of who shall be the gubernatorial candidate is being freely discussed in all parts of the state. Many names are mentioned, including those of such able and distinguished men as Hon. John McLane of Milford, Dr. Charles S. Collins of Nashua, Hon. Sumner Wallace of Rochester, Hon. T. Nelson Hastings of Walpole, Hon. Seth M. Richards of Newport, Col. A. F. Howard of Portsmouth and many others. Among all these the name of Hon. John McLane stands out as a leader. Several times before he has been urged by friends to become an active candidate. Indeed, there has been quite a strong sentiment in his favor throughout the state for a number of years, and he had only to say the word and a strong campaign would have been inaugurated This sentiment was perhaps the strongest just previous to the last convention, but Mr. McLane would not heed it. Believing that the Hon. N. J. Batchelder was the logical candidate he refused to listen to the expressed wish of many influential and public-spirited citizens in all parts of the state. It would seem that now he is the logical candidate, and the announcement of his candidacy in the Milford "Cabinet" a few weeks ago, was an opportune one. This candidacy has been received with much favor in all parts of the state, thus assuring him a generous support.

Mr. McLane would make an ideal governor. The day is past, if indeed it ever existed, when theorists are needed to fill such responsible positions. On the contrary, the man in whom the people place the most confidence is the one with practical business ability and experience. These qualities Mr. McLane has in marked degree. Beginning his business career with scarcely any capital he has built up an industry that holds a prominent position among the commercial enterprises of New Hampshire, and is known throughout the country. This has come through careful management of the concern and close attention to its every department. If successful in his aspirations, the people can rest assured that the qualities which have made him a successful business man will be exercised in the gubernatorial chair. Nor is he lacking in experience in public affairs. Twice he has served with credit in the lower branch of the legislature and twice in the state senate. During both terms in the senate he was elected president, a distinction possessed by no other man in New Hampshire for more than half a century. The NEWS takes pleasure in seconding the nomination made by the Milford "Cabinet," and we predict also that when the Convention has been held he will be found to be the successful man.

The Manchester Daily News is heartily in favor of a license law, but does not appear to be in love with the one passed by the Legislature at the recent session of the gifted 400. The News says: "Nothing is settled until it is settled right. The present law is a compromise with the devil and a league with hell. It is a rope thrown over a limb, fastened at one end to the peoples' necks, and the other end in the hands of Henry M. Putney."

Dr. J. Alonzo Greene has shaken the dust of Laconia from his feet and Roxmont, in the town of Moultonboro, is once more his legal residence. The Doctor took up his residence in Laconia with the best of intentions but it was hardly a case of veni, vidi, vici, politically. His presence irritated the small army of petty political bosses and other Lake City snipes and they managed, by a queer combination of circumstances to triumph. But the victor has proved to be a barren one.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

The Montreal "Gazette" says:—"Country merchants in some sections of the United States are endeavoring to secure the abolition of rural free mail delivery routes. They bring the farmer into too close contact with the city departmental store. There never has been a good thing yet which did not interfere with somebody's prosperity. The country storekeepers will have to adjust themselves to new conditions." Notwithstanding these complaints we have no doubt that rural deliveries in the United States will continue to increase and will eventually be adopted by the authorities in Canada. Enterprising country merchants have little to fear from the supposed help which rural deliveries give to city stores. Farmers, like all other sensible people, prefer to see what they are buying and while their own sections are served by good stores, carrying large and well assorted stocks such as we have in Granby, they will continue to patronize them in preference to taking chances on the apparently cheap and oftimes inferior articles which are foisted on them by mail-order houses.—Granby Mail.

The Wastes of the Body.

Every seven days the blood, muscles and bones of a man of average size loses two pounds of worn out tissue. This waste cannot be replenished and the health and strength kept up without perfect digestion. When the stomach and digestive organs fail to perform their functions, the strength lets down, health gives way and disease sets up. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten into the kind of blood that rebuilds the tissues and protects the health and strength of the mind and body. Kodol cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. It is an ideal spring tonic. Sold by C. W. Morrison.

Doctor

Tried but Could Not Relieve Me

Of Headache, Dizziness, Twitching.

Dr. Miles' Nervine Did Relieve and Cure.

"The doctor tried but couldn't relieve me" is a phrase commonly met with in the letters we receive from grateful patients. The reason is plain, The doctor tries to cure the symptom and neglects the disease. In all cases of chronic headache, nervousness, weakness, general debility, dizzy spells, loss of appetite inability to sleep, lack of energy, loss of flesh, lack of interest, morbid tendencies, hysteria, the disease is a nervous disorder and some means must be taken to strengthen and restore the nervous system. Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine is performing wonders every day and will cure you as it has thousands of others. Read how quickly it acted in the following case:

"A few years ago I was greatly troubled with nervousness and indigestion. While at work a dizzy spell would come over me and I would be forced to stop and rest. I suffered terribly from headaches and my nervousness was so marked as to cause almost constant twitching of the muscles. My doctor tried but could not relieve me. I finally began the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine and continued until I have used four bottles, although I have not had a dizzy spell since taking the first dose. I am very thankful for what your medicine has done for me and shall take pleasure in recommending it whenever I can."—FRANK P. BENTLEY, Middlebury, Vt.

Are symptoms of a weak, torpid or stagnant condition of the kidneys or liver, and are a warning it is extremely hazardous to neglect, so important is a healthy action of these organs.

They are commonly attended by loss of energy, lack of courage, and sometimes by gloomy foreboding and despondency.

Married in Meredith.

A dispatch from Lebanon says: Mrs. Mary Curtis MacArthur, who left her home in North Adams, Mass., eighteen years ago, has been located in this place. Until a few days ago Mrs. MacArthur's parents have known nothing of her whereabouts for many years, and they have travelled hundreds of miles in trying to locate her. Mrs. MacArthur recently wrote a letter to her sister, Mrs. Flora Noel, who lives in Williamstown, Mass., and the good news was communicated to the aged parents, Peter and Rosana Curtis of North Adams, Mass. Her father is about 71 years of age and her mother over 60.

Mrs. MacArthur's career has been a somewhat romantic one. At 18 years of age she married Amos Keasor against the wishes of her parents. She and her husband left North Adams and went to Colebrook. She afterwards lived in Franklin, Laconia and Ashland. Mr. Keasor died in North Stratford eleven years ago. Mrs. Keasor married Andrew MacArthur six years ago in Meredith, and three years ago they came to Lebanon.

[illegible] Twelfth Regt. of N. H. Vols. Being as popular as he was in earnest, he was unanimously chosen its commander. He was the first man to enlist in Co. I, Aug. 14, 1862, and enlisted 25 in the afternoon of the same day. He was in the battles of Fredericksburg, Chancellorsville, and the skirmishes in front of Petersburg. At Chancellorsville he was wounded severely in the leg and taken prisoner, being held fourteen days. The wound in his leg prevented him from marching into Richmond with his regiment. He was discharged on account of wounds August 19, 1864, having been in active service two years and five days. Since the war he has been engaged in farming in Meredith.

Captain Lang had been as prominent in his town as he was in the military service of his country. For years he had been one of the leading Democrats in this vicinity and had been repeatedly called upon to fill public office. During the war he served in the Legislature and again in 1898, defeating Nathan G. Plummer, one of the most prominent Republicans in the town, in a close and exciting contest by a majority of 9 votes.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, services being held at the Congregational church. In spite of the inclement weather the church was crowded to the doors, the seating capacity not being sufficient to accommodate all who entered the church. The pastor, Rev. G. I. Bard, officiated, assisted by Rev. E. G. Eastman and Rev. Justus Erskine.

The following societies were largely represented: Chocorua Lodge, No. 83, A. F. & A. M.; Geo. S. Cram Post, G.A.R.; Meredith Lodge, K. of P.; Algonquin Tribe, I. O. R. M. Wamesit Hose companies, Nos. 1 and 2, also attended in a body, and Winnipesaukee Grange was also well represented. The attendance of veterans was exceedingly large, many coming from a long distance to pay their last sad tributes to the memory of a valiant comrade of by-gone days. The Sons of Veterans united with Geo. S. Cram Post for the occasion.

The bearers were Major E. B. Bedee, Nathan G. Plummer, Geo. H. Clark, A. A. Kidder, Edwin Cox and J. F. Clough (Manchester.)

At the grave the beautiful Masonic burial service was rendered. The floral offerings were numerous.

SHYLOCK

Shylock was the man who wanted a pound of human flesh. There are many Shylocks now, the convalescent, the consumptive, the sickly child, the pale young woman, all want human flesh and they can get it—take Scott's Emulsion.

Scott's Emulsion is flesh and blood, bone and muscle. It feeds the nerves, strengthens the digestive organs and they feed the whole body.

For nearly thirty years Scott's Emulsion has been the great giver of human flesh.

[illegible] and Burnell, but it is the desire of the management to save the best men, as far as possible, for the hard games which must come later in the season. Of the High school team there is not much known as far as the makeup is concerned, but Nichols, Berry and Pynn are "cracker-jacks" in the line while Bryant, Mitchell, Cowing and Belmore will make fast players. When it is taken into consideration that the Meredith team will use one man who never saw a game until this season, one who was only a substitute on the M. H. S. last year and another who has never played in fast company, it will be seen that the M. H. S. has more than an even chance of winning. Win or lose the High school is bound to make the regular team hustle and the people will get their money's worth. The admission will be 15 cents. This is done to give all a chance to see the opening game. After this game the admission will be raised. Remember the game begins at nine o'clock.

DURNO THE MYSTERIOUS & CO. COMING SOON.

The manager of the town hall has been fortunate enough to secure Durno The Mysterious & Co., who will appear here soon. Durno is indorsed by both press and public to be America's greatest magician in mystery and fun. He keeps his audience in an uproar of laughter and works with lightning rapidity. He makes the impossible seem possible, the unnatural seem natural. He causes you to think you see what you do not see and not to see what you think you see. He gives an entertainment that is immensely entertaining to old and young.

The Metamorphose, The Illusion Guess, The Mutantis Homo and The Organ Pipes are four great illusions originating with Durno. The Company has crossed the Continent six times during the past four years.

Durno carries his own special scenery, also six live animals. A jolly Company of fun makers, a whirlwind of wonders and 100 laughs during his program of astonishment, mystification, imitation, ventriloquism, dialect stories, comic songs and music from various different kinds of instruments.

When one sees and hears the Durno Company, all sorrows and troubles are forgotten. Durno's motto—Laugh and grow fat.

[illegible] attended the centennial anniversary of Freemasonry at Plymouth Monday night. Among others were: Daniel Cummings, W. W. Ballard, Jos. F. Smith.

Those who believe in promoting good clean sport should attend the entertainment to be given Wednesday evening for the benefit of the basketball teams. You will be sure to get your money's worth as a great deal of pains has been taken to make the entertainment more than usually attractive. Both the musical and dramatic features as well as the novelties have been carefully selected and prepared.

Woman's Progress Club.

The Woman's Progress Club increased its membership by the addition of several new names at the meeting in Ladd hall Tuesday afternoon. Several were kept away by sickness and other causes, but there was a good attendance although the weather was unfavorable. The program was in charge of the committee on education, of which Mrs. Charlotte P. Smith is the head. Owing to ill health she was unable to be present, but she sent an appropriate greeting. The first paper was an able and comprehensive production on "What is Education?" read by Mrs. Lindie Smith. She told of the effect of different kinds of training and showed how the true education would teach one to be a producer as well as consumer. One is not fully educated, however much knowledge he may possess unless, he is able to earn his own living and has besides the strength of character to stand on the right ride on all the issues of the day.

The second paper, "Home as a Factor in the Education of the Child," by Mrs. Ella E. Eaton, was remarkably clever and full of wise sayings and helpful suggestions. It gave a sketch of how "Mrs. X," an ideal mother, managed her girls and boys and how she met and overcome many of her difficulties.

Mrs. Blake then read a short paper on "Education Outside the Schools." Mrs. Lillian Wadleigh in her essay on "The Public Library and the Child" had some interesting facts and made a plea for cooperation between the teacher and the librarian in order that children might be supplied with the right kind of books. The question "Shall Religion be taught in the Public School" [illegible] was very ably discussed by Mrs. Bard, who is in favor of the teaching of that religion which is a part of life, a simple faith, yet with no suggestion of sectarianism.

This feature was followed by short papers on "Modern Phases of School Work." The one on "The Kindergarten" by Miss Elizabeth Lang was read by Mrs. Blaisdell. It showed the use of the kindergarten for children of tender age in teaching them many things in nature study, love of animals, etc.

"Physical Culture" by Miss Goddard was read by Miss Mina Moses, and strongly recommended a daily exercise in physical culture as necessary to symmetrical development.

Mrs. Blaisdell on "Music" advised an early start in this important branch, and gave the history of the finally successful effort to have the study of music introduced at Harvard college. Miss Gertrude Watson, in a brief talk on "Manual Training," told how the slumbering talent of pupils could thus be awakened and developed where Latin and mathematics had failed. This closed an unusually interesting program.

Among those present from out of town were Mrs. Mrs. Mabel S. Philbrick of Roxbury, Mass., and Mrs. Jones of Franklin.

Dr. Geo. Ewing, a practicing physician at Smith's Grove, Ky., for over thirty years, writes his personal experience with FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE: "For years I have been greatly bothered with kidney and bladder trouble and enlarged prostate gland. I used everything known to the profession without relief, until I commenced to use FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE. After taking three bottles I was entirely relieved and cured. I prescribe it now daily in my practice and heartily recommend its use to all physicians for such troubles, for I can honestly state I have prescribed it in hundreds of cases with perfect success."
